SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

All Saints' Sunday

November 2, 2014

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

*In life and in death you bless us, O God.
When trouble overwhelms us, you save us.
When sorrow overtakes us, you comfort us.
When death overcomes us,
you overcome death and raise us to new life.
You promise us joy everlasting and, even now, give us glad hope
and glimpses of your realm which is to come,
when Christ makes all things new.
For calling us your children,
and bestowing upon us such great love,
we give you thanks, in Jesus' name. Amen.*

Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving

*CALL TO CONFESSION

*ADMITTING OUR BROKENNESS

Sovereign God, we confess that we are not ready for your holy realm.
We want to be numbered among your saints,
but we are unwilling to face the time of trial.
We want to be gathered among the faithful,
but we are unprepared to offer you our lives.
Forgive us, merciful God,
so that we may return to your fold
and rejoice in your presence;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
the Lamb upon the throne.

*DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us pray together. Lord God, by your grace we are running a race.

We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses:

Patriarchs and matriarchs, prophets and psalmists, disciples and evangelists, martyrs and saints.

We thank you for their example. We praise you for their lives of faith.

For all your saints, O Lord, who strove in you to live, who followed, obeyed, adored you—our grateful hymn we sing.

Lord God, by your grace we are running a race.

We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses:

Loved ones now resting in you, who guided us, nurtured and cared for us; ancestors who worked and traveled, lived and died that we might be who we are, where we are—your precious children in this community of believers.

We thank you for their example. We praise you for their lives of faith.

For all your saints, O Lord, who strove in you to die, who counted you their great reward—accept our thankful cry.

Lord God, by your grace we are running a race.

We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses:

Family members and members of this congregation; fellow believers in every country, every denomination; friends who help, guide and uplift us—children of your family, sheep of your fold, saints of your redeeming.

We thank you for their example. We praise you for their lives of faith.

For this, your name we bless, and humbly pray anew, that we like them in holiness may live and die in you.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Christ, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. Amen.

As part of the ecumenical prayer cycle, we ask you to pray for a particular region of the world each week. This week we pray for Burundi, Democratic Republic of Congo, and Rwanda. We give thanks for those who have given up their lives to protect others; for those who work for reconciliation between people; and for those establishing a lasting peace with justice for people of all ethnic groups and nationalities. We pray for orphans, widows, street children, traumatized and disabled people, those in overcrowded prisons, and those who live in the squalor of refugee camps; for those steeped in ethnic violence and hatred, that their hearts may be turned; for the establishment of a stable and lasting peace in the region; for those displaced by violence, that they may be able to rebuild their lives; for children, that they may attend school and play without fear of violence; and for an end to the violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo, so that the country may begin to heal and rebuild itself.
