2nd Sunday after Pentecost

June 6, 2021

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

O God,
you have assured the human family of eternal life
through Jesus Christ our Savior.
Deliver us from the death of sin
and raise us to new life in him,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

BRINGING THE LIGHT

*CALL TO WORSHIP

The voice of the Lord rings out over the waters.

The love of the Holy Three washes over the world.

Let us worship the God whose voice flashes fire

and whose love cannot be bound.

*SONG OF PRAISE

Come, Thou Almighty King

Hymnal, No. 2

*CONFESSION AND PARDON

It is only by the power of God that we are able to stand against evil.

Trusting in God's grace, let us confess our sin.

For you so loved the world, O God,

that you came among us

to feel our pain, amplify our joy, and bless our broken stories.

For you so loved the world, O God,

that you are among us still,

calling us by your spirit to follow in the way of your love.

Forgive us when we do not listen, O God:

when we forget the love that you have for us

and the love we are called to share with one another.

Forgive us, three-in-one God,

and let your love transform our lives.

(Time of silent reflection)

In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

Thanks be to God.

*THE PEACE

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another.
The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
And also with you.

*SONG OF RESPONSE

Glory Be to the Father

Hymnal, No. 581

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

PRAYER FOR UNDERSTANDING

RESPONSIVE PSALM

Psalms 138

I give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart; before the gods I sing your praise;

I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness; for you have exalted your name and your word above everything.

On the day I called, you answered me, you increased my strength of soul.

All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord, for they have heard the words of your mouth.

They shall sing of the ways of the Lord, for great is the glory of the Lord.

For though the Lord is high, he regards the lowly; but the haughty he perceives from far away.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you preserve me against the wrath of my enemies; you stretch out your hand, and your right hand delivers me.

The Lord will fulfill his purpose for me; your steadfast love, O Lord, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands.

*SONG OF FAITH

Great God of Every Blessing

Hymnal, No. 694

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Jesus Christ is God with humankind.
He is the eternal Son of the Father,
who became human and lived among us
to fulfill the work of reconciliation.
He is present in the church
by the power of the Holy Spirit
to continue and complete his mission.
This work of God,
the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
is the foundation of all confessional statements about God, humanity, and the world.
Therefore, the church calls all people to be reconciled to God and to one another.
*Adapted from the Confession of 1967, 9.07

The author of this Trinitarian text is unknown, but this hymn has proved popular since the middle of the 18th century, partly because of its effective use of biblical metaphors, but also because of the strength of this tune, which was composed especially for these words.

Written for the 500th anniversary of John Calvin's birth, this text sums up his liturgical theology, ending each stanza with his motto: Cor meum tibi offero, Domine, prompte et sincere. By moving from plural to singular the stanzas show how corporate faith becomes personal piety.

When pastor of a Presbyterian church in Lockport, New York, the author of this text referred to his morning walks as "going out to see my Father's world." The tune created for these words is based on an English melody the composer learned from his mother when he was a boy.
